Sir:

I, Richard (Ike) Eichelberger, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am employed as Patent Docketing Clerk by the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery, 2049 Century Park East, Los Angeles, CA 90067. I am responsible for managing the patent docket.

2. On July 25, 2003, at approximately 3:30 in the afternoon, I received a copy of the application referred to in the caption of this declaration, including the cover letter and postcard that had been sent with it.

3. In accordance with my normal practice, I made an entry in our calendaring system on July 25, 2003, stating that the application had been filed on time. Specifically, I wrote "PCT & Utility Appln filed 07/25/03." A copy of the docketing tracking sheet on which I made this entry is attached as Exhibit A.

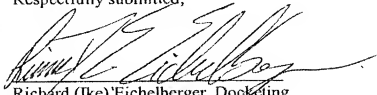

4. I then stamped the copy of the postcard that had been given to me for this application that I had entered the foregoing docketing information in our docketing system on July 25, 2003. I did so by stamping this postcard copy with our docketing stamp and with the stamp bearing my nickname ("IKE") and by writing in next to the word "Calendared" the date "7/25/03." A copy of this stamped postcard copy is attached as Exhibit 2.

I hereby declare that all statements made in this declaration of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true. These statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001 and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
